Mobile Solutions for the Toughest Data Capture Use Cases

Scandit's Enterprise App Solutions demonstrate how smartphones, coupled with powerful mobile apps and web services, act as a cost-effective and feature-rich replacement option for legacy barcode scanners. Our solutions include mobile software and cloud services designed to address typical workflows across the supply chain including Inventory Management, Stock Taking, Asset Tracking, Order Entry, Proof of Delivery and more.

Our mobile solutions provide enterprises with a flexible, software-based alternative to dedicated barcode scanners that is designed to reduce software development costs and avoid the high price of up-front hardware investments associated with traditional scanners.

> SBB has been pleasantly surprised and highly satisfied with the overall scan performance of the Scandit solution. Software updates are also now incredibly easy to make.
